Hi all,

We reached out to Bitso, Unocoin, and Bitgo last night. Heard back from [REDACTED] at Bitgo and he agreed to tweet something but preferred it not to be price focused as it's not his usual MO.

He put this out this morning from the Bitgo Twitter account.

"Happy to be partnering with @Ripple to launch #XRP support and leverage the transaction scalability of RCL <https://t.co/TZmYJ9QDJ5>"

Will follow up with Bitso, Unocoin, and Ledger and see if we can't get them to speak more directly to the price action.

sorry to be late to the party on this.

- 1) LOVE the idea!
- 2) I assume the best point person to reach out and ask / encourage is someone from Team XRP or Team BD. Patrick - let Monica know if you disagree. (I don't think anyone from her team has relationships with these teams)

Hey Monica the investor angle might be challenging but I think the partner/exchange rout is a GREAT one.

Bitso, Unocoin (I know some sensitivity here), Bitgo (this would be awesome), Ledger would all make sense.

Hope that helps

Reduced distro...

@Patrick/Miguel - who has significant positions in XRP who's respected in the world of Bitcoin or trading more generally? I'm thinking like Barry Silbert (though I understand he'd likely be reluctant to do anything that won't help BTC). Could we get one or more of these folks to comment on Twitter too?

Or can we get any of our exchange partners (signed or pipeline) to comment - Bitstamp, Unocoin, etc.?

Could be neutral or more of an endorsement:

- Noticing #XRP rally...[link to exchange]
- A bright spot in stormy waters for #Bitcoin: #XRP trading at a 9 month high [link to exchange]
- Encouraged by #XRP's rally. It's the only #digitalasset I see with a real use case. [link to exchange]

Hi Brad & Monica,

We're going to publish the following Tweet from Ripple to take advantage of the continued XRP increase:

The price of XRP continues to surge, showing that people are looking for bitcoin alternatives via @Brad - believe this would be a great one to R/T from your personal handle too!

Thanks!
